MAHĀMUDRĀ
UPADESA OF TILOPA

KARMA KAGYU

The Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

Translated by Chogyam Trungpa Rinpoche

Look at the nature of the world,
impermanent like a mirage or dream;
Even the mirage or dream does not exist;
therefore, develop renunciation
and abandon worldly activities.

Renounce servants and kin,
causes of passion and aggression.
Meditate alone in the forest, in retreats,
in solitary places.
Remain in the state of non-meditation.

The Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

If you attain non-attainment,
then you have attained mahāmudrā.

The dharma of samsara is petty,
causing passion and aggression.
The things we have created have no substance;
therefore, seek the substance of the ultimate.

The dharma of mind cannot see the meaning of transcendent mind.
The dharma of action cannot discover the meaning of non-action.

Karma Kagyu

If you would attain the realization of transcendent mind and non-action,
 Then cut the root of mind and let consciousness remain naked.
 Let the polluted waters of mental activities clear.
 Do not seek to stop projections,
 but let them come to rest of themselves.
 If there is no rejection or accepting,
 then you are liberated in the mahamudra.

When trees grow leaves and branches,
 If you cut the roots, the many leaves and branches wither.
 Likewise, if you cut the root of mind,
 The various mental activities will subside.
 The darkness that has collected in thousands of kalpas
 One torch will dispel.

Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

Likewise, one moment's experience of luminous mind
 Will dissolve the veil of karmic impurities.

People of lesser intelligence who cannot grasp this,
 Concentrate your awareness and focus on the breath.
 Through different eye-gazes and concentration practices,
 Discipline your mind until it rests naturally.

If you perceive space,
 The fixed ideas of center and boundary dissolve.
 Likewise, if mind perceives mind,
 All mental activities will cease, you will remain in a state of non-thought,
 And you will realize the supreme bodhi-citta.

Karma Kagyu

Vapors arising from the earth become clouds and then vanish into the sky;
 It is not known where the clouds go when they have dissolved.
 Likewise, the waves of thoughts derived from the mind
 Dissolve when mind perceives mind.

Space has neither color nor shape;
 It is changeless, it is not tinged by black or white.
 Likewise, luminous mind has neither color nor shape;
 It is not tinged by black or white, virtue or vice.

The sun's pure and brilliant essence
 Cannot be dimmed by the darkness that endures for a thousand kalpas.
 Likewise, the luminous essence of mind

Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

Cannot be dimmed by the long kalpas of samsara.

Though it may be said that space is empty,
 Space cannot be described.
 Likewise, though it may be said that mind is luminous,
 Naming it does not prove that it exists.
 Space is completely without locality.
 Likewise, mahamudra mind dwells nowhere.

Without change, rest loose in the primordial state;
 There is no doubt that your bonds will loosen.
 The essence of mind is like space;
 Therefore, there is nothing which it does not encompass.

Karma Kagyu

Let the movements of the body ease into genuineness,
Cease your idle chatter, let your speech become an echo,
Have no mind, but see the dharma of the leap.

The body, like a hollow bamboo, has no substance.
Mind is like the essence of space, having no place for thoughts.
Rest loose your mind; neither hold it nor permit it to wander.
If mind has no aim, it is mahamudra.
Accomplishing this is the attainment of supreme enlightenment.

The nature of mind is luminous, without object of perception.
You will discover the path of Buddha
when there is no path of meditation.
By meditating on non-meditation you will attain the supreme bodhi.

Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

This is the king of views-it transcends fixing and holding.
This is the king of meditations-without wandering mind.
This is the king of actions-without effort.
When there is no hope or fear, you have realized the goal.

The unborn alaya is without habits and veils.
Rest mind in the unborn essence; make no distinctions between meditation and post-meditation.
When projections exhaust the dharma of mind,
One attains the king of views, free from all limitations.

Boundless and deep is the supreme king of meditations.
Effortless self-existence is the supreme king of actions.
Hopeless self-existence is the supreme king of the fruition.

Karma Kagyu

In the beginning mind is like a turbulent river.
 In the middle it is like the River Ganges, flowing slowly.
 In the end it is like the confluence of all rivers,
 like the meeting of mother and son.

Having no mind, without desires,
 Self-quieted, self-existing,
 It is like a wave of water.
 Luminosity is veiled only by the rising of desire.

The real vow of samaya is broken by thinking in terms of precepts.
 If you neither dwell, perceive, nor stray from the ultimate,
 Then you are a holy practitioner,
 the torch which illuminates darkness.

Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

If you are without desire, if you do not dwell in extremes,
 You will see the dharmas of all the teachings.

If you strive in this endeavor,
 you will free yourself from samsaric imprisonment.
 If you meditate in this way, you will burn the veil of karmic impurities.
 Therefore, you are known as “The Torch of Dharma.”

Even ignorant people who are not devoted to this teaching Could be saved by you from constantly drowning in the river of samsara.

Karma Kagyu

It is a pity that beings endure such suffering in the lower realms.
Those who would free themselves from suffering should seek a wise guru.

Being possessed by the adhishtana [blessing],
one's mind will be freed.

If you seek a karma mudra,
then the wisdom of the joy of union and emptiness will arise.
The union of skillful means and knowledge brings blessings.
Bring it down and give rise to the mandala.

Deliver it to the places and distribute it throughout the body.

Mahāmudrā Upadesa of Tilopa

If there is no desire involved,
then the union of joy and emptiness will arise.

Gain long life, without white hairs, and you will wax like the moon.
Become radiant, and your strength will be perfect.

Having speedily achieved the relative siddhis,
one should seek the absolute siddhis.

May this pointed instruction in mahamudra remain in the hearts of fortunate beings.
